World Down Syndrome Day was celebrated on March 20, 2022, under the slogan "Chromosome number is not important for good friends" with about 200 children, young people, families, and organizations that support and help ensure the equal rights of children and young people with Down syndrome.

Partnered and supported:

- Shangri-La
- General Department of Development of Persons with Disabilities
- Kids&Co

A group of people are in a dance studio, practicing a routine. On the left, two men are in a wide, low stance. In the center, a woman in a blue long-sleeved shirt and maroon leggings is in a similar pose. To her right, another woman in a black tank top and shorts is also in a low stance. On the far right, a woman in a leopard print top and white pants is standing. The studio has a wooden floor, a large mirror on the right wall, and a piano in the background. There are blue and yellow bags hanging from the ceiling. The text "For physical education of children and youth" is overlaid on the left side of the image.
